

SYDNEY BLUESOX CATCHING CLINIC

The Sydney Bluesox are conducting a catching clinic featuring Bluesox Manager Tony Harris and Bluesox player Trent D'Antonio.

The details of the clinic are below:-

Date: Monday 19th February 2018
Time: 6pm to 9pm
Venue: Blacktown International Sports Park
Cost : $95

Tony Harris has spent the last 26 years in professional baseball as a coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers and a scout with the New York Mets and Pittsburgh Pirates. He has also been part of the coaching staff of the Australian Senior Team for 19 years, and has been Baseball Australia's National Catching Co-ordinator for the last 10 years.

Trent D'Antonio played professional baseball as a catcher with the Florida Marlins in the US Minor Leagues for 3 years, before returning home and continuing his stellar career with the Sydney Bluesox. He has also been a fixture in the Australian Senior Team for many years.

Tony and Trent will be providing specialised catching instruction on all aspects of catching, both physical and mental.

Players will need to bring the following :-

- full baseball uniform
- their own catchers gear including protector
- water bottle
- a great attitude, you will be worked hard!
